License Required

A license is required for any person or business selling and/or serving food at a temporary event. A temporary event is an event such as a fair, festival, fundraiser, carnival, circus, public exhibition, anniversary sale or occasional sales promotion that is held at a fixed location for not more than 14 consecutive days.

License is valid for one year from date of issuance and can be used at multiple temporary events.

If you will be at multiple booths and/or events at the same time, a separate license is needed for each booth/event.

Exemptions (license not required)

- Individuals/businesses selling or giving away only:
 - Canned or bottled non-alcohol drinks that do not need refrigeration.
 - Raw agriculture –includes fresh uncut produce, cottage food products, honey, cider, sorghum, maple syrup.
 - Pickle Bill items - pickles or other processed vegetables or fruits with an equilibrium pH value of 4.6 or lower.
 - Prepackaged Foods that do not require temperature control– includes chips, candy, nuts, cookies.
 - Sample size (2 oz. or less) food portions – includes Chili Cook Offs, Meatball Challenges, etc.
 - Fresh produce grown on a private residence, provided processing is limited to that needed to harvest the product and the produce is sold on site at the residence where the produce was grown by the individual who grew it.
- Nonprofit organizations operating a total of 3 or fewer days per calendar year.
- State of Wisconsin Mobile Food License holders.
- Licensed Food Peddlers (as long as they are operating within the limits of their license).
- Block parties which are not open to the general public.
- Licensed Food Dealers who have obtained a temporary extension of the food premises. The extension area must be contiguous (connected at some point) to the licensed premise. See the Food Dealer Temporary Extension Application.

Application Deadline:

Two Weeks Prior to Your First Event

Submit the Temporary Event Food License Application and fee payment to the License Division at least 2 weeks prior to your first event.

Applications received after the deadline date may not be processed prior to the first event or at all if additional events are not listed.

If your application is submitted after the 2 week deadline, you will not be eligible for a refund (full or partial).
